This cover is only granted if explicitly mentioned in the schedule

CHAPTER 1 - PURPOSE OF THE INSURANCE

As a departure from any provisions to the contrary, the insurance cover is extended to the reimbursement of the net loss suffered by the Insured due to the exhibitor's, participant's, honorary guest's, celebrity's or visitor's decision NOT to travel to the event because of a terrorist act, in as far as such act:

- occurs or is published within thirty days before the starting date of the event,
- occurs in the country where the event is to be held, but not further than 500 kilometres from the event, or if the country where the event is to be held has been specially threatened,
- occurs in an aircraft of the company the exhibitor, participant, honorary guest, celebrity or visitor has booked his flight with OR that company has been threatened with terrorist acts without the possibility to reserve a ticket with another company that has not been threatened.
- This cover shall be subject to a deductible of 5% of the insured amount.
